Mr. McGannon states that the stable was worth about $300, upon which there is an insurance of $200 in the Manufacturer's Insurance Company of this city. The fire was supposed to be of incendiary origin.

As the cackling of a vigilant goose announced impending danger to Rome, so fire was supposed to be of incandiary of the fire was supposed to be of incandiary or fight.

As the cackling of a vigilant goose and anserine flock in a neighboring yard arouse the natives by their incessant quacks to a sense of their danger. We may parenthetically state, however, that although the credit of discovery is due the feathered sentines, they did not render such eminent service as did the ancient birds that aroused the Eternal city.

We would not have been at such pains to make the above statement, if it were not for the fact that at every fire one meets with half a dozen persons, each claiming the distinguished honor of having first discovered the blaze. The queetion of discovery in this case, however, is indisputable, and, as it is the first time we have heard of geese behaving in such an intelligent manner, they should by all means be rewarded with the notoriety their sagacity demands. This circumstance is also a revelation in the fire alarm system. Why should not everybody keep a goose in the back yard. They are prompt, reliable, faithful, and warranted not to get out of order.

BLOOD AND SKIN REMEDIES.

anthe ed over thirteen years with skin disease in my hands and limbs, causing constant irritation, depriving me of rest and attention to budness, I sought many remedies here and elsewhere, also use of sulphur baths, without permanent curs. Last May a physician called my disease Ecnema Rodent; spots much inflamed and granulated, causing at length impaired sight. Internal and external remedies were prescribed by a leading physician for six months, was then introduced to another, and a consultation of several leading physicians was had, when a definite plan was decided up.n. but all to su surposes. After following advice for four months without any permanent curs. I bought two bottless of Ouricurs, and can testify with great pleasures to the effect they have had in my case, in eight days being nearly cured. The physicians pronounced my case the most aggravated one that has ever come under their experience and practice. I recomend and highly indense the Curricura Remembers. Your truly,
